

SIDNEY SWEEP BY FIRE DOING $300,000 DAMAGE

Three Large Business Concerns Lose Valuable Plants and 15 Residences Destroyed, Leaving 18 Families Homeless

FIREMEN FROM ONEONTA GIVE AID

Arrival of Apparatus From This City, Walton, Norwich, Unadilla and Bainbridge Coupled With Fortunate Change in Direction of Wind and a Rainfall Saves Village From Destruction.

Sidney, May 26.—The worst conflagration in the history of Sidney occurred Saturday evening when in less than four hours, flames destroyed one large industrial and two equally large mercantile plants, also 15 residences, seriously damaged many others and rendering 20 families homeless. A conservative estimate of the loss and damage done exceeds $300,000. The plants destroyed are those of M. P. Berglas, with home offices in Brooklyn, occupying the buildings known as the Novelty Works, where he was engaged in making bathroom accessories; M. L. Siver and company, extensive dealers in lumber and building materials, who are probably the heaviest losers, and H. M. Bloxham, dealer in coal and feed, who had a large stock, he having unloaded three cars of coal the day previous.

At 5:40 p. m., the fire was discovered about the base of the smokestack at the Novelty work, and it seemed but an instant afterward when flames burst from the roof. Alarms were quickly sent in, but before the firemen arrived the main factory was enveloped in fire. It was a three story wooden building and burned like tinder. The flames spread to adjoining houses, to the lumber yards and to the three-story warehouse and in a few moments that section of Sidney was in flames. The wind was blowing heavily from the south and the great flames fanned by this quickly leaped the street to the Silver Lumber company's big buildings and lumber yards. Dry wooden buildings and thousands of feet of dry lumber stored in them and in the yard made fine fuel for the flames and without control they quickly advanced to the Bloxham coal and feed plant, which was entirely consumed. The wind carried the fire across the street to the home of Fred Gale and in a few moments this was a mass of ruins.

Calls for aid had been sent to Oneonta, Walton, Norwich, Bainbridge and Unadilla and men and apparatus from these villages and cities arrived very quickly and but for their aid the greater part of Sidney village would today be in ashes. A violent storm had come up in the mean time and with this a change in the direction of the wind which did towards saving many thousands of dollars more of property. The row of cottages facing the Novelty works on Division street quickly caught fire from the intense heat and flying embers and fast burned down. The houses on Division street adjoining the Silver plant quickly caught and were consumed. Burning embers were flying about the village, and it is stated that at one time 35 buildings were afire. These flying embers set fire to the house owned by Mrs. E. K. Waters on Grand street, a quarter of a mile from the scene of the main conflagration and this was burned to the ground. The fire raged until nearly 9 o'clock before the firemen considered they had it under control. Chief of the Sidney department, W. C. Burnside, was out of town, and the former chief, J. E. Gurney, took control of the situation. The valuable assistance given by Chief Choate of Oneonta, Chief Brooks of Norwich and the chiefs of the Walton, Unadilla and Bainbridge departments with the forces they brought with them, added to the strenuous work of the Sidney men, it is needless to say, is appreciated by the people of Sidney. They were assigned to important posts and all did their work cheerfully and efficiently. The work of fighting the flames was greatly hampered by a lack of water and of pressure, and but for the powerful streams thrown by the Oneonta engine, the fire would have raged hours longer. The powerful streams from the Kayser factory fire pump gave efficient aid in that vicinity and but for this the houses adjoining the Waters property on Grand street would have been destroyed. Most of the buildings were burned to the ground. All that remains of the Novelty works is a brick fire wall. Of the Silver plant nothing remains. At the Bloxham place of 125,000 pounds of tons of coal and feed are still smoking.

Throughout the neighborhood many lawns are still covered with articles of household furniture and clothing that were carried out in many instances unnecessarily. These articles were out in the heavy rain and remained out all night and thousands of dollars of loss resulted from this. All over the village people packed up their valuables prepared to move. Many of the business men prepared much of their stock for instant removal for at one period it seemed as though nothing could keep the flames from the business section. The reflection of the fire was seen for many miles and it is reported that ashes and cinders were blown as far away as East Guilford and Mt. Vernon. Today thousands of people have visited the scene, coming by automobile and train from many distant points. It is a hard blow for Sidney. The Novelty works, which was owned by M. P. Berglas of New York, who manufactured toilet seats and tanks, employed about 70 hands and about 20 were employed at the Silver place. The 26 homeless families have found temporary homes. In several instances the entire belongings of these homeless ones, were lost. The local Red Cross chapter has been busy today. Many of the ladies dressed in uniform have been soliciting for the benefit of those who have lost so heavily and they have met with a generous response from Sidney people and the many visitors in town.

Principal Losses.
The principal losses are as follows: Novelty works, $100,000. This building contained much valuable machinery. Mr. Berglas is not in town, and the amount of insurance can not be learned, but it is reported that a blanket insurance of $50,000 was carried.

M. L. Siver & company, over $125,000 with an insurance of $75,000.

H. M. Bloxham, coal and feed, $25,000. Insurance about $15,000 on building and contents.

The double tenement house at the corner of Division and Union streets, owned by Elmer Chase of Otego, valued at about $2,500, is a total loss. Amount of insurance not learned. The house was occupied by George Newton and Charles Winnie. The latter's loss is about $1,500, insurance $1,000. Mr. Newton's loss is about the same with some insurance.

Henry Brady's house on Union street, also valued at about $2,500, was totally destroyed. It was occupied by two families, George Japhet and George Hillinger. Mr. Japhet's loss is about $600 with no insurance. Mr. Hillinger's loss will be about covered by his insurance of $1,000.

The house owned by Mrs. William Reed on Gilbert street was totally destroyed. It was valued at about $2,500. Two families occupied it. George Uter resided upstairs. All his furniture was burned. He carried no insurance. Loss about $500. Henry Beach resided in the lower half. His loss was about $500 with no insurance.

The house owned by Mrs. Katherine Welch of Binghamton was totally destroyed. Loss about $3,000. Insured. The house was occupied by Louis DeGroodt, whose loss on furniture will exceed $2,000 with no insurance.

The residence of Ernest Humphrey on Division street was a total loss. Loss estimated at $3,000. Insurance on building and contents, $2,500. Some furniture was saved.

The Lawrence Hess house, corner Division and Grand streets, was entirely consumed. Loss about $2,500. Insurance, $2,000. The house was occupied by Henry Williams. Much furniture was saved. Their loss is estimated at about $100, with no insurance.

The residence occupied by D. Wilson on Gilbert street and owned by Charles Phelps, was a total loss. Estimated, $1,500. Insurance, $500. Mr. Wilson's household goods were a total loss, with no insurance.

Loss, $2,000. Insurance, $1,400. They saved nothing.

Mrs. James Jameson's two-family house on Clinton street practically a total loss. Estimated loss, $3,500. Insured, L. Tifford, who occupied the lower part of this house, estimates his loss at $2,000. Insurance, $1,000. E. Schermerhorn, who resided upstairs, lost several hundred dollars' worth of effects with no insurance.

The residence of Ed. Wickham on Division street was a total loss with contents. Estimated loss, $2,000. Insurance, $500 on building; $400 on contents.

R. W. Siver's house on Division street, occupied by George Crandall, was totally destroyed with the most of the contents. Loss on building, about $1,500. Insured, Mr. Crandall's loss is about $500 with no insurance.

The home of Fred Gale on Clinton street is a complete loss, estimated at $2,500, with insurance of about $2,000. Loss on contents, about $750 with insurance of $600.

The roof on T. C. Graves' house was badly burned and the interior badly damaged by water. Mr. Graves estimates his loss at about $1,000, covered by insurance.

The home of O. L. Keeler was damaged by fire and water to about $800. Covered by insurance.

Harold Hatfield, Union street, estimates his damage at $50. Covered by insurance. The damage here was mostly to goods carried out and damaged by water.

C. E. Landers estimates the damage to his residence on Gilbert street at $200, covered by insurance.

Estimated damage to Standard Light, Heat and Power company, $500; to the Union Telephone company, about $1,000. Both companies expect to be able to resume the service tomorrow evening.

Fire caught on the roof and spire of the Congregational church several times. Estimated loss about $25.

During the progress of the fire, Clifford Godfrey, a well known resident of Sidney, was seriously injured. He was working on a porch roof at the Gale house when a chimney fell. The bricks sliding from the roof struck him on the head. Examination showed that he had a fractured skull and other injuries and he was rushed to the Oneonta hospital, where at last reports he was still in an unconscious condition.

Red Cross to Rescue.
The Red Cross drive committee got busy early Saturday evening at the Municipal hall and after listing the names of the families who had lost their homes arranged that all had beds for the night, neighbors quite uniformly providing for them. Miss Hildebrand, representing the Atlantic division, directed the work, and she was ably assisted by several of the good women of Sidney.

During the day nearly 2,000 motor cars carrying sightseers crossed the river bridge entering the village from the state highway. They were met at the end of the bridge by Red Cross workers, who briefly informed the visitors that they had numerous families who were homeless, having lost their all. With only a few exceptions generous response was cheerfully made and at an early hour this evening nearly $1,000 was realized in this way for the sufferers.

AUTO KILLS 16-YEAR-OLD GIRL.
Binghamton, May 26.—Miss Florentine Benson, 16, one of the "four minute" Red Cross speakers of the city schools, was struck by a speeding automobile as she alighted from a street car this afternoon. Her head was crushed and she died immediately. The police are searching for the motorist, who did not stop.

WAR CHEST REACHES $88,000

CAMPAIN WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL ALL CAN CONTRIBUTE.

Voluntary Subscriptions Solicited From All Who for One Reason or Another Have Not Been Interviewed—D. & H. Continue to Add to Their Liberal Support.

Saturday noon the total contributions to the War Chest aggregated $88,000, that amount being reached by an additional $1,100 in contributions from D. & H. employees, who had not previously been reported and by contributions to the American Red Cross society made through the War Chest of $1,900 each from the Wilbur National and the Citizens' National banks. To these amounts were added $260 from the Oneonta Improvement company and $50 from the Oneonta Promotion company.

The noon day luncheon Saturday was well attended, Dr. J. C. Russell making the principal address and although he spoke briefly he said much and gave a most fitting appeal for the prosecution of the war with vigor and for hearty support by our citizens of the War Chest drive. Mr. Clarke, who has given the project such valuable aid, was obliged to return to Syracuse where pressing duties as secretary of a large Railroad Y. M. C. A. demanded attention. Mr. Clark, proved the right man for the place and his wise counsel and experience in similar projects made him invaluable to the enterprise. He made a few parting remarks, expressing his appreciation of the cordial support accorded, commending the city, although not in unduly laudatory terms, observing that we could not have done less and done our duty.

The campaign will not be closed, but this week an earnest effort will be made to secure contributions from those who have not been seen, many of whom have been waiting. It is due the solicitors who have worked and to those who have not yet been reported as contributing, to state that some cards have gone no farther than to be assigned and also that many have contributed whose names the Star has been unable to get into type. In either event the absence of names is not indicative either of lack of interest of those whose names have not been printed nor lack of belief on the part of the committee that those who have not been seen are equally willing to give with those who have.

For the purpose of accommodating those who are interested and desire to add their contribution to the fund, pledge cards will be left this week at the places named below and those who have not signed one are earnestly requested to call at one of these places and sign a card. They may be found at the following business places: C. C. Colburn & Son's store, Lavern Palmer's, Winans Grocery company, O. L. & P. company office, R. E. Brigham's, Keenan and Wells, M. E. Wilder & Sons, Buckley Brothers company and the office of Fred N. VanWile.

LIGHTNING CAUSES BLAZE.

House of Edith Smith at 6 Ernst Street Damaged by Fire.

Last night, during the thunder storm prevailing between 12 and 1 o'clock, flames broke out in the rear part of the house of Edith Smith at 6 Ernst street, and before the firemen could extinguish it the rear of the structure in part was so badly damaged that it will have to be rebuilt, and the front portion was so badly damaged by smoke that it will have to be refinished. The contents were also damaged to quite an extent by the chemicals and water.

While lightning was the first thought when the cause was considered, Chief Choate could find nothing to warrant that belief, and it is thought that it originated from other causes on the lower floor and in the rear portion. Normal students were sleeping directly over this room and they experienced no shock from lightning. The total damage will not exceed $500, which is covered by insurance. Water was used on the rear portion of the structure only, and the chief damage to the contents of the front portion was done by the smoke.

UNFIT MEAT SENT BY BIG PACKERS TO CAMP

Morris & Co. and Wilson & Co. Charged in Complaints of Federal Trade Board

Washington, D. C., May 26.—Sale of spotted meat and other food products to the army, with the knowledge that the food was unfit for human consumption is charged in complaints issued today by the federal trade commission against Morris and Wilson and company, two of the five great packing corporations.

It is alleged that thousands of pounds of unfit meat and chickens were sold to Camp Travis, Texas. Most of it was detected and condemned, but it is said some of it may have been passed and consumed.

Details of the information upon which the action is based were withheld by the commission. The announcements and correspondence given out with it show that the alleged offenses occurred last December and are the same on which indictments were obtained in Texas by the department of justice after an investigation by the food administration. The indictments were dropped because they were returned under section four of the food law, which carries no penalty.

Since then both the food administration and the trade commission have continued their investigations. If the complaint now announced should be sustained, the commission could do no more than order the packers to "cease and desist" from these practices. Upon repetition of offenders may be haled into a federal court.

A further report to the food administration from E. A. Teden, federal administrator for Texas, is expected this week. Officials of the administration say they probably will and some penalty to fit the cases, even if only on the ground of food wastage. Correspondence between Teden and A. E. Boyden, chief of the enforcement division of the food administration, show that Mr. Teden reported his belief that the basic trouble in the case was the attempt of the packers to do business without proper facilities. As to the unfit chickens, it is charged that they were prepared in unclean surroundings by barefoot Mexicans and shipped partially cleaned.

D. M. ARMSTRONG IS DEAD

New York, May 26.—David M. Armstrong, artist and man of letters, died today at his residence in this city.

GREATER FOOD SAVING URGED

New York, May 26.—Reduction of the consumption of meats to two pound per person and economy in the use of sugar and wheat were urged by Federal Food Administrator Hoover in an appeal issued today to the people of the country through the churches. The appeal read generally from pulpits declared that exports of food stuffs are constantly increasing and approaching the minimum requirements of the Allies and American troops abroad, but the "need for renewed devotion and effort" on the part of the public is pressing.

Mr. Hoover's Message to the American People

The confidence of the United States Food Administration that the people of the country would respond enthusiastically and wholeheartedly, upon presentation of the facts, to any necessary request for reduction in consumption of food, has been fully justified. We have demonstrated our ability not only to think together but to act together. This response of the people is the reason for the present appeal.

Our work is not yet complete. In spite of the encouraging results of our efforts, in spite of the fact that our exports of foodstuffs are constantly increasing and are approaching the minimum requirements abroad, the need for renewed devotion and effort is pressing. While all of the requirements of Food Administration should be constantly observed, there are certain matters upon which I desire to lay stress at this time.

In the case of meat and meat products, the necessities for shipment abroad are very great. Whereas the Allied consumption has been reduced to an average of about one and one-quarter pounds per person per week, we are today enjoying an average of about three and one-quarter pounds per person per week. This diversion is inequitable. An understanding of these facts will justify our request that the consumption of all meats, including poultry, as nearly as possible, be reduced to two pounds per week per person over four years of age.

In the case of sugar we are embarrassed by the necessity of using ships for carrying our soldiers and feeding the Allies, and, in consequence, we must use sugar with great economy. We must emphasize the importance of canning and preserving on a large scale among our people this summer, and our available sugar must be conserved for this purpose. But the situation with regard to wheat is the most serious in the food supply of the Allied world. If we are to satisfy the minimum wheat requirements of our armies and the Allies, and the suffering of millions in the Allied countries, our consumption of wheat in the United States until the next harvest must be reduced to approximately one-third of normal. It is inconceivable that we should fail in this crisis. For each of us who can personally contribute to the relief of human suffering, it is a privilege not a sacrifice. All elements of our population cannot bear this burden equally. Those engaged in physical labor need a larger bread ration than those in sedentary occupations. Because of the constant daily employment of women, and the lack of home baking facilities, many households in large urban centers require a food ration already prepared, such as the bakers' standard Victory bread loaf. Furthermore, we must constantly safeguard the special requirements of children and invalids.

To meet the situation abroad, and to prevent serious suffering at home, it is imperative that all those whose circumstances permit, shall abstain from wheat and wheat products in any form, until the next harvest. It is realized and deeply appreciated that many organizations and some communities have already agreed to follow this plan. It is hoped that you will communicate this to your organization and your community, urging those whose circumstances will permit to join with us and take this stand.

R. R. WAGE INCREASES ANNOUNCED BY MCADOO

Carries Out Commission's Recommendations, Adding Basic Eight Hour Day and Other Changes—Board of Wages Appointed

EFFECTIVE JUNE 1 AS OF JAN. 1

Women to Receive Same Pay As Men—Negroes on Par With Whites—More Money For Laborers—55 Cent Minimum For Shop Workers—New Pay Runs With Job Not With Man—Plan Raising Freight and Passenger Rates.

Washington, D. C., May 26.—General pay increases for nearly 2,000,000 railroad employees were announced today, effective next Saturday and retroactive to last January 1, carrying out recommendations of the Railroad Wage Commission. The aggregate of the increases probably will be more than $50,000,000, half of which will be distributed within a few weeks as back pay in lump sums.

The Director General departed from Washington today to carry out Wage Commission's recommendations in following particulars:

Eight Hour Day Recognized.

"The principle of the basic 8 hour day is recognized but owing to exigencies of war situation hours of employment are not actually reduced and overtime is to be paid pro rata, further adjustments of pay are to be made on the basis of 8 hours.

"In addition to the ordinary scale of increased pay, laborers employed mainly on track work are to get at least 2 1/2 cents an hour more than they received last December 31st.

"A minimum of 55 cents an hour is established for shop trades, including machinists, boilermakers and blacksmiths.

"Women are to receive the same pay as men for the same work and negroes are to get the same as white men for similar employment.

"To work out a multitude of inequities of pay among employees similar work in different localities and other injustices caused by varying rules of employment and conditions organizations, the Director General created a new board of Railroad Wages and Working conditions, consisting of three labor representatives and 3 railway executives who will conduct extensive investigations and recommend wage increases and other changes."

Increases Based on Pay of Dec. 1915

All increases now ordered will be determined according to a percentage scale based on pay received in December, 1915, and any increases which have been allowed within that time will be deducted. In many cases raises in pay in the last two and a half years are about equal to the increases now approved and consequently those employees will get little or no more. To correct such situations when injustices are apparent will be one of the principal duties of the new wage board, whose creation was suggested by the railroad wage commission. In no cases are wages to be reduced.

Members of the four leading railway brotherhoods whose pay was raised through operation of the Adamson act, are to receive from 10 to 40 per cent additional, a smaller increase than they asked of railroads shortly before the government took control.

The wage order applies to all employees of the 154 roads now under federal management, but not to the so-called short lines unless they are retained by the government after July 1. It affects employees of terminal, union station and switching companies, lighters, ferries and tugs owned by railroads, but not employees of railroad boat lines on the lakes, rivers or coastwise traffic. Although Pullman cars now are under government operation, Pullman employees will not benefit unless the railroad administration decides to retain management of the cars.

May Raise All Railway Rates.

In announcing his decision, Mr. McAdoo appealed to railroad employees to forget dissensions and disappointments arising under private control and to remember that the success of the war depends largely upon their service. To meet the expense of the wage increase, the biggest ever granted to the railroad or any other class of employees at one time, the railroad administration has discussed raising freight and passenger rates.

With the exception of office and messenger boys under 11, who are given smaller increases, all employees who received less than $46 a month are given a flat increase of $26 with the provision that laborers paid by the day shall get a minimum of 2 1/2 cents an hour above the rate six months ago. Special rates of pay are provided for office, messenger and chore boys and similar employees under 15 years of age.

Washington, D. C., May 26.—General pay increases for nearly 2,000,000 railroad employees were announced today, effective next Saturday and retroactive to last January 1, carrying out recommendations of the Railroad Wage Commission. The aggregate of the increases probably will be more than $50,000,000, half of which will be distributed within a few weeks as back pay in lump sums.

MAY OUTPUT OF STEEL SHIPS EXCEEDS APRIL

In Race With Submarine, Appearance Point to Lead Taken By Allied Production

Washington, D. C., May 26. — Steel ships completed thus far in May exceed the output of any previous month of the shipping board. The total output up to and including May 24, was 23 vessels of 174,661 tons. Four steel steamships totaling 28,200 tons were delivered last week.

With the showing of the first three weeks, officials believe that the output for the month together with the ships built in the yards of the Allies will exceed the tonnage lost.

In the race with the submarine it begins to appear that the lead taken by the Allies in April, as revealed in Premier Lloyd George's speech today at Edinburgh, is certain to be maintained and increased from now on. Only some unforeseen and disastrous interruption of work can retard the output of hulls. Workmen in the American yards are giving their best efforts and leading the world in work done. Shortages of material are being overcome. Lack of engines and boilers apparently will be remedied by the survey of manufacturing resources being made at Chicago.

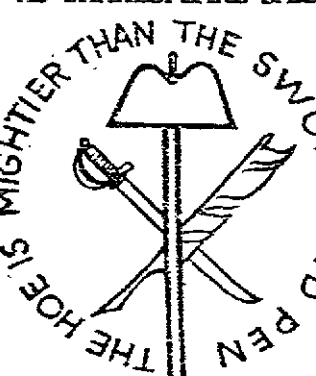

It is hoped also that the American output of ships in May will set a new world's record. Of the 29 vessels delivered ready for sea, 24 have been requisitioned on the stocks and five were built on contract. The average daily output of completed ships has been 7.94 tons.

Evidence of the energetic work being done on the Pacific coast was given in the following telegram from the Skinner & Eddy company of Seattle.

"Westport launched 55 days from laying of keel. This makes three vessels launched within last few weeks, two of them in 35 days; one in 55 days. Will launch another vessel about June 5."

CITY TEAM WINS OUT.

Hartwick Seminary Easy for Oneonta Nine on Saturday.

The Oneonta baseball team was a little too strong for the Hartwick Seminary team Saturday afternoon at Neah-wa park, defeating them again by a one sided score of 15 to 0. The local team was very strong at the bat, while Hartwick did not connect with the offerings of O. Babbitt, who pitched his usual good game. The Oneonta team here on Decoration day at 4 o'clock and no doubt Sidney will make the local team play baseball to get away with a victory. Score by innings:

Happy Outlook.

"Giving in" to groggy, disagreeable moods will, instead of helping our cause in any way, seriously hamper the same. We must, externally, be at our best always if we hope to make any kind of progress along life's way. Try to overlook the disappointments that somehow come to us all. Indeed, it is better still to forget them. Get into the habit of smiling and looking pleasant.

This attitude will help you in many ways, and life will take on an altogether different aspect. The groggy girl or woman hourly stands in her own light. Added to that she casts a gloom over the bright spirits of those whom she meets from day to day.

Daily Thought.

Women like brave men exceedingly, but audacious men still more.—Lemuel.

GRANDFATHER AND GRANDSON IN NAVY

On the left is Gaston V. Lowe, twenty years old, who enlisted at Kansas City, Mo., in 1917. He is now on duty at Hampton Roads fleet operating base.

On the right is Adolph L. Lowe, seventy-seven years old, who served in the navy from 1861 to 1885. He re-entered the service May 29, 1917, as carpenter's mate.

Adolph L. Lowe, who is sure he is the oldest man serving in the navy, called on Secretary Daniels a few days ago, and was warmly welcomed by the head of the navy department. He left the service half a century ago, after serving through the Civil war, and re-entered as carpenter's mate on May 29, 1917.

NATURE OPENS INLET

Storm Brings Improvement Farmers Had Sought in Vain.

In a few hours nature has done for the rich farmers along the Indian river in Delaware what congress has failed to do in more than fifty years, when the recent storm cut an inlet 200 yards wide and eight feet deep where the river and bar flow into the ocean. For several years the inlet has been gradually filled until navigation has been stopped, and bills before congress for appropriations to build jetties have always failed.

Several times farmers have attempted to dig the opening larger, but to no avail. When it closed even smaller this winter and no fish were coming in another attempt was made, but the sand shifted as fast as the farmers dug it out.

Then storm came and in a few hours scoured the inlet so that a two-masted schooner can pass while the fish are swarming into the quieter waters of Indian river and Rehoboth bay.

Money Cannot Buy Them.

Scattered up and down this country are a number of cottages which no millionaire, however wealthy, could possibly hope to purchase, notes an exchange. Stratford-on-Avon has two such cottages—the house in which Shakespeare was born and the dwelling of his sweetheart and wife, Anne Hathaway. Various attempts have been made to secure these historic, though humble cottages, but so far without success, owing to the fact that they are the property of the nation, the government having purchased them in the sixties for $3,000 each.

MAKES PARIS LAUGH

German Papers Give Lurid Tales of Bombardment.

City Is Serene and No One Pays Any Attention to Long-Range Gun.

Paris, France.—The damage caused in the Paris district by shells from the long range German cannon has been insignificant in proportion to the mirth provoked by German newspaper reports giving lurid accounts of the damage, panic and consternation in the French capital since the bombardment began.

One German paper says great numbers of dead are buried at night; that the people of Paris take their breakfast and luncheon in their cellars and that all those who can leave the stricken city are hastening to a safe distance. Another says that in the high tension of nerves resulting from the havoc the common people, "who are unable to leave the city" are bringing about trouble that amounts to riots after each unfavorable communique from the fighting front.

The situation in Paris has been described fully by cable. No disorder of any kind has occurred and instead of consternation there reigns and has reigned from the beginning perfect tranquility. No one pays further attention to the long range guns than to speculate after each explosion as to where the shell fell. Most of the shells fall in the soft earth of the country districts.

The few shells that have reached settled portions of "the intrenched camp of Paris" have done astonishingly little harm. Even the shell that went into a church on Good Friday killed no one, the casualties resulting from the caving in of the arches. Had the shell not happened to strike a pillar supporting the ceiling few if any of the congregation would have been hurt. Shells have fallen within ten to thirty feet of buildings without doing more damage than breaking windows.

CROOKED FINGER CUT OFF

Man Submitted to an Operation to Enlist in Army.

Some men "lose a finger" to keep out of military service; but not so with Thomas Thoman, Denison, Tex., who had one taken off so he could get in.

Thoman tried to enlist as a stenographer, but examination disclosed the little finger on his right hand was crooked and stiff.

"That finger will have to come off if we take you," he was told. Without a word Thoman left; half an hour later he returned.

"Well, sergeant, I had her cut off," he said.

He was accepted.

Memphis Has War Baby.

Memphis has its first "war baby." It is a little girl. A feminine voice called police headquarters and asked that search be made for a watch lost in the park. The search was made. No watch was found but the little baby, but a few days old, was discovered wrapped in blankets. The infant has a happy home now.

Beware of Rusting Out.

The vacant house decays soonest, and the watch or the man that is kept running regularly lasts the longest and is of the most service while it lasts.

HIS LIFE FOR HIS COUNTRY

The announcement that Lieut. Whitbey H. Joyce of Oneonta has died in France from the effects of wounds received in battle, appeared in The Star of Saturday. To his parents and wife the tidings bring grief so deep that it cannot be measured. To friends and neighbors they are attended by sorrow unutterable, that one whom they knew so well and loved so much should be first of the sons of Otsego to fall upon the field of battle. To the wider community which embraces not only his own but neighbor counties of the state they bring not alone this sense of personal bereavement but the stern admonition that the sons of America are in this war, that they are fighting side by side with the sons of France, and England, and Italy; and that in the natural course of events there will be others whose souls like his will take glorious flight from those ravaged fields.

Lieut. Joyce was first from Otsego to die in battle. It will be a fact which will be remembered long after the last thunder of battle has died away, and to those so deeply bereaved there will be abiding sympathy in their loss. Early in the days of America's participation in the conflict he gave up the bright opportunities for advancement which his profession afforded at home, and imbued with a sense of the highest duty, laid himself upon the altar of sacrifice. That sacrifice has been accepted. Others there will doubtless be, but it is not until death actually touches one whom we knew that we feel the certainty of it or to the full extent realize that we are at war.

The death of Lieut. Joyce, we believe, will quicken this realization in the people of the upper Susquehanna valley as nothing before has done, and it is to be hoped that it will stir the hearts of all to greater sympathy, their minds to fuller comprehension, their spirits to more of action. To work, to save, to give, to sacrifice—these are some of the duties which are incumbent upon us, and the extent to which we do these things will be a measure of fulfillment of our sacred obligations.

SATURDAY'S REGISTRATION.

Seven Hundred Women Under Party Emblems for Full Primaries.

Saturday was the day of registration for women in Oneonta in preparation for the fall primaries, and the polls were open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. for that purpose. While many women took a lively interest in registration, many more apparently were not willing to align themselves with any party organization, but preferred to wait the nominations and probably to vote independently. If the registration is correctly interpreted, there will be a much larger independent vote this fall than ever before. The registration by districts is as follows:

First ward, first district	39
First ward, second district	54
Second ward, first district	160
Second ward, second district	70
Third ward	154
Fourth ward	99
Fifth ward	93
Sixth ward	68

Total

The total registration of women at the April election was 2,775.

The ballots are counted but not canvassed by the local boards. Instead they are sent directly to the election commissioners of the county, by whom the ballots are opened and the party lists tabulated.

May Procession at St. Mary's Church

The annual May procession of the children of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church. The procession was preceded by a reception of the Junior Holy Name society and of the Holy Angels sodality, after which the members of the latter, gowned in white, and of the former most of them in their vestments, as altar boys, formed in line in the church and marched on Main and Grand street and returned to the church, where they were dismissed. There was a large attendance both of children and adults. The service at the church was the benediction.

Called as Witness.

Chief Thomas W. Bizard leaves this morning for Camp Devens, at Ayer, Mass., where he is called as witness before a court martial in the proceedings against Harris L. Cote, whom it will be remembered Mr. Bizard apprehended in the Binghamton railroad station, after having been suspected when he sold a motorcycle in this city at less than its value. The fellow gave himself away, however, when he explained his failure to wear his uniform here and again the following day at Binghamton, in both of which places he alleged that it was in the hands of cleaners.

Counties Have Clean Record.

During the month of April there were no convictions or even arrests for violation of the State Fish and Game law in the counties of Delaware and Otsego. In Chenango there were two with a fine of $11.50 and one sentence suspended.

AN ELOQUENT TRIBUTE

INSPIRING ADDRESS LAST EVENING BY DR. J. C. RUSSELL.

Sermon of Exceptional Merit Closes with a Thrilling Apostrophe to the Spirit of Peace—Large Attendance Present at Memorial Exercises.

Despite the threatening and afterwards unfavorable weather, perhaps the largest audience ever assembled on a like occasion in Oneonta was present last evening at the union memorial services held in the First Presbyterian church. The members of the Grand Army, the Woman's Relief corps, Company G, the Spanish War veterans and the Boy Scouts were out in numbers, and in addition a large number of citizens, filling every seat, both on the floor and gallery of the large auditorium. The church was handsomely decorated with the American and Red Cross flags on either side of the platform, the American, Belgian, Italian, French and English flags above the organ and the English, French and American about the pulpit, on which was a huge bouquet of white carnations.

The services were in charge of Rev. J. C. Trauger of the Lutheran church. Prayer was offered by Dr. Pendleton of the Free Baptist church, and Dr. Farley of the First Baptist church offered prayer and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Burd of the West End church. The musical numbers were admirably rendered by the Presbyterian quartet, composed of George J. Clute, Arthur N. Coy, Miss Edith Smith and Miss Sara Emery, which sang "The Star Spangled Banner," "The Liberty Anthem," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America," and Mr. Clute also gave a fine patriotic solo.

The address of the evening was by Dr. James C. Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Our citizens generally are familiar with the scope and quality of his work, but never have his remarks been more eloquent or impressive. He never have won from an audience closer attention, and never have they been listened to with more absorbing interest. The memory of his stirring utterances will long abide with those whose good fortune it was to be present.

The sermon in part is as follows: Text—Leviticus xxv-17: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto the inhabitants thereof."

"Members of the G. A. R., Women's Relief corps, Spanish War veterans and all patriotic organizations and fellow-citizens generally, greetings. I feel greatly honored in having the opportunity of addressing you on such an occasion and in such stirring times.

"There was peculiar wisdom and foresight on the part of our legislative fathers in asking us annually to commemorate the heroic deeds of our soldiers living or dead. We are here this evening to unite in a tribute of respect and love to the brave men who fought or are fighting and multitudes of whom died or are dying today for the sacred cause of human freedom. But while we are here to honor the warrior, we are not here to glorify war, nor to exalt the carnage of the battlefield. War has been characterized as hell upon earth. Never was this more true than today. It has become the chamber of horrors of the world's history.

"Writers have tried to tell us what war is like, but only those who have heard the whiz of bullets, the booming of cannon, the bursting of shells and the clash of the bayonets—only these have felt the shock of battle or have seen the serried ranks, when comrades dropped on either side; only those who have heard the groans of the gassed or wounded men and the moans of the dying, or have seen the livid faces of the dead can have any comprehension of the terrible meaning of war. Nor is this all the story of weary marches or anxious waiting in mud-soaked trenches, the horrors of the prison pen, the sufferings of the hospital, the holocausts offered up to the god of war, the breaking-up of beautiful homes, the destruction of invaluable property, the devastation of fair lands, these are only some of the horrors of war. Yet there are times when man is cowardly before God and man—when war is not only justifiable but inevitable."

Continuing, Dr. Russell pictured the battlefields of the revolution when the sons of America wrested their freedom from the hands of the German King who sat upon an English throne. But the freedom then won was for white men only. The nation had a black spot on it and this led to sectionalism, animosity and strife, and the strife led to a rebellion, to the disruption of a union it had cost so much to establish. When treason stalked brazen-faced in the laws of Congress God raised up the man for the hour—the rail-splitter from Illinois—with a brain as big as the needs of the times and a will as firm as the everlasting hills.

The speaker briefly sketched the four years conflict which in the end brought peace and harmony and good will. "After the same people who had heeded the cry of the oppressed at home heard also the cry of our little sister of the south—Cuba, as she lay bleeding and torn at the feet of Spanish despotism; and in the conflict which brought freedom to her, North and South marched side by side and heart to heart. Time would fail me even to mention the work of the brave men who for the love of their country wrought deeds of heroism, stopped the mouths of cannon, quenched the violence of fire, waxed valiant in fight and turned to fight the armies of the enemy. Their devotion to the cause of Liberty, like that of the soldiers of the Revolution and the Civil war, will never be forgotten. It is recorded in flaming letters on the hearts of their countrymen and will be told to generations yet unborn.

"And now once more the hour has struck and the nation have been called to arms. It is being decided, we trust forever, whether the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness shall remain the common heritage of the race, or shall forever perish from the earth. It is a war not of armies or of nations, but of systems, of ideals. It is democracy versus democracy, bondage versus freedom. Already millions have lost their lives in this colossal conflict, millions more have been widowed or orphaned, with homes destroyed, and their families a desert place. There is no need to ask who started this war. The culprit is condemned before the bar of the universe—a Prussianized Germany debauched by the love of power and ruled by a war-crazed scrofulous parson, obsessed by the belief of Divine right has sought to trample the nations beneath its cloven foot, and it will be held responsible by the infuriated world."

It is to be regretted that space is not at our disposal even briefly to summarize the scathing and searching analysis of the purposes of the Prussian autocracy or even the eloquent apostrophe to the nations now in hand to hand conflict with the Hun to the end that freedom shall not perish from the earth. The close attention and the marked interest on the part of all present were evidence of the high quality of this eloquent and patriotic pastor, who not only in Oneonta but throughout all this section has helped in the noble work of awakening our land to a sense of obligation. In conclusion he said:

"I have read somewhere of a very beautiful custom among the mountains of Switzerland. When the first rays of the rising sun strike the mountain tops the shepherds who are watching their flocks far up toward the snow line, catching the first glimpses, cry out 'Praise the Lord,' and the sound reverberates along the hillsides and is caught up by the people lower down, as they too cry, 'Praise the Lord,' and their voices, heard still lower down among the villages, is caught up and repeated until over mountain and vale all shout at break of day, 'Praise the Lord.'"

"So when comes the sunrise of a glorious peace from cities and country sides, from hill and dale, from shops and factories, from stores and homes will be heard the shout, 'Praise the Lord.' The thunder of the Maine, and Oregon and Michigan, the waters from beneath the soil of Pennsylvania and West Virginia will cry, 'Praise the Lord.' From the gold and silver mines of Colorado and Montana will come the cry, 'Praise the Lord.' From the wheat fields of the Dakotas and the corn-fields of Iowa and Kansas will be heard praise to the Lord. The boatmen on the Mississippi and the great lakes will take up the cry, and from Dixie three whose sons and fathers have come back from across the seas will go up the shout, 'Praise the Lord.' Then from those over there in Flanders fields and among the once fair valleys of France, from the mountains of Serbia, and the plains of Poland, from the uplands of Armenia and the deserts of Arabia, where peoples and nations can once more sit beneath their own vines and fig-trees with none to molest or make afraid, will come back the response, 'Amen.' Ay, and methinks possibly the souls of all the slaughtered in behalf of human liberty, leaning eagerly over the battlements of heaven and hearing this earth-born music as it is wafted to the skies, and will send back the shout, 'Hallelujah, praise the Lord.'"

AMERICA—THE SYMBOL OF FAITH AND HOPE

By GEO. W. GOETHALS
Acting Quartermaster General

EVERY American citizen should be proud of the American Red Cross. It is daily, indeed hourly, giving an example of mercy to the whole world. Through its operations the suffering of soldiers and civilians is being alleviated.

The American people should continue to support the American Red Cross. Through it they are helping their own men and helping the allies. Through it they are making America the symbol of faith and hope in a distracted world.

GEO. W. GOETHALS,
Acting Quartermaster General.

LOCAL MENTION.

—The Surgical Dressings rooms will be open this afternoon and evening.

—The injuries sustained by Emil Jautzen at the Bauer Chemical works on Friday morning last, were dressed at the Fox Memorial hospital by Dr. David H. Mills.

—Claude Champlin, who recently resigned his position with Samuel Harley at Grand Gorge and returned to Oneonta, has entered the employ of the Carr Clothing company.

—There were no candidates for the State Civil Service examination scheduled to be held on Saturday at the office of George L. Gibbs esq. in this city. The next examination is announced for Saturday, June 22.

—The evening school of telegraphy is holding its classes four evenings weekly from 7:30 to 9:00. Beginners are taken any of the four evenings. Assurance of position when proficient.

—If any of the branches or any of the women of the Oneonta chapter of the Red Cross have sweaters which are finished, they are asked to bring them to Red Cross headquarters before 3 o'clock this afternoon. This is to insure every man who will go in the draft contingent tomorrow a sweater.

—Rural delivery carriers from the Oneonta, Oneonta and Schenectady post-offices were present at the meeting of the county association, held in this city Saturday evening. Owing to the weather conditions, the attendance was not so large as usual. There will be no meetings during the summer, the next one being called for the Saturday preceding Labor day.

—Friends of A. O. Walther, manager of the East street branch of the Quality Silk mills, made him a pleasant surprise Saturday morning when they presented to him a wrist watch, fountain pen and a sum of money. The gift was made by the employees of the Quality works as a remembrance to Mr. Walther before his departure for New York on Tuesday to join the American forces at Camp Upton.

DRAFTS GATHER TODAY.

Will Receive Final Instructions and Entrain Tomorrow for Camp.

The 57 men of this Local Board district will gather this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the State armory on Academy street to receive instructions and to be given a lesson in the rudiments of the soldier and drilling.

These men will go to Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C., tomorrow morning, enrolling here at 9:30 on special cars. The band will be out to give them a send off.

The full list of men, which was to have been printed today, will be published tomorrow morning.

Meetings Today.

Regular meeting Knights of Columbus this evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance desired.

Regular meeting Perseverance Lodge, No. 98, L. A. to E. of R. T., in K. of P. hall, this evening at 7:30.

THREE FRACTURED SKULLS

ONE BUSY NIGHT FOR SURGEONS AND NURSES AT FOX HOSPITAL

Trainman Clarence P. B. Whittemore of Glens Falls is Dead, Clifford Godfrey of Sidney in Critical Condition With Slight Hopes of Recovery and Trainman Charles W. Coats of This City Less Seriously Hurt.

Saturday night was a busy one for surgeons and nurses at the Fox Memorial hospital, three patients suffering from fractured skulls being received during the night and given all possible attention.

Clifford Godfrey of Sidney was critically injured while engaged in fighting the fire in that village. He was at work upon a porch roof when the main chimney was blown over by the wind, the upper part of which struck him squarely upon the head, crushing the skull. He was removed to a nearby residence, but apart from the section in immediate danger, where Dr. Day attended him. Later he was brought to this city by motor car. Dr. Brinkman attended him at the hospital and operated upon the skull to remove the pressure upon the brain. While he has not regained consciousness his general condition has remained good. Though critically injured, his condition throughout the day Sunday gave hope, although not of the most satisfactory sort. Late last night no change for the worse at least had been observed.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning the ambulance brought Clarence P. B. Whittemore of Glens Falls to the hospital. He had fallen from the top of a box car while engaged in train riding on the north bound hump in the D. & H. yards here and sustained a fatal fracture at the base of the skull. His injury is of such a character as to preclude recovery and he passed away at 3 p. m. What caused him to fall could not be learned. Mr. Whittemore was boarding at 6 High street. He was an unmarried man and his home was with his mother at 18 Hatter Place, Glens Falls.

The mother of Mr. Whittemore arrived in Oneonta last evening from Schenectady and is stopping at the home of A. M. Morse, on Broad street. She was naturally much overcome by the sudden death of her son. A physician was summoned on her arrival and she at once retired. It is understood that Mr. Whittemore was 21 years of age on May 17, and that he is survived besides his mother, by two brothers and a sister. He had been employed but a short time on the D. & H. and became a member of the Trainmen's brotherhood only on the Sunday preceding his death. The body will probably be taken to Glens Falls today, leaving this city at 9:40 a. m.

Charles W. Coats, a trainman residing at 19 Myrtle avenue and well-known about the city, having formerly been a barber, while at work on northbound extra 1075, with Conductor Bailey and Engineer Quick, a Carbonade crew, was hit by the water crane north of Sidney at 2:05 a. m. Sunday and suffered severely from concussion. While there are symptoms of a fracture, it is believed to be slight. He also was attended by Dr. Marsh at the hospital, where he arrived shortly after Whittemore arrived. His condition is good and while water crane accidents are usually severe he appears to have fortunately escaped the serious injuries usually inflicted.

FIELD BAKERY LEAVES CAMP

En Route Several Days Ago for Post Of Embarkation.

Captain Jesse A. Millard's Field Bakery company, long stationed at Camp Wadsworth, at Spartanburg, S. C., left that camp several days ago for a post of embarkation which, while it has not been disclosed, is assumed to be some southern port, perhaps in the vicinity of Norfolk, Va., but this latter place is largely a conjecture.

Quite probably no further intelligence will be received here until news is received of their safe arrival "Over There." The company has made an excellent record at the camp and it is believed that they will make an equally creditable record when they reach the battle front.

One of the last changes made before leaving Spartanburg was the promotion of Sergeant Fred L. Beach to the grade of quartermaster sergeant of the Quartermaster corps, which makes him first sergeant of Bakery Company, No. 161. Further advice from the war department was to the effect that he is to be selected to attend an officers' training camp shortly after his arrival in France.

Lutheran League Tonight.

The Lutheran League business meeting, announced for Wednesday evening at the home of Charles M. Wilber, will be held this evening instead at the home of Fred Frommshagen, 42 Academy street. This will, after a short business session, be made a farewell social in honor of Mr. Frommshagen, who leaves on Tuesday for Camp Wadsworth at Spartanburg, S. C. All members and friends are urged to attend.

Three desirable lots left in Miller plot. For the next ten days they will be offered at a big discount on the easy payment plan. If you want to purchase one of the best lots in Oneonta at a low figure see F. D. Miller, 101 Main street or J. E. Tiller, 371 Main street.

J. J. CORR JR. BADLY HURT

BOTH LEGS CUT OFF AT ANKLES. SHOULDER BROKEN, WHEN RUN OVER.

Son of James J. Corr of Fairview Street Struck by Train in N. Y. C. R. R. Yards at Utica, Drawn Beneath Cars, and Train Stops with Wheels Atop His Legs — Did Not Lose Consciousness — Says Prayers by Rosary While Rescuers Work.

Leaning far out from the freight car which he, as a brakeman, was helping to switch from one track to another in the yards of the New York Central railroad at Utica yesterday afternoon, James J. Corr Jr., son of James J. Corr of this city, was struck by a passing local train and drawn beneath the wheels. Both legs were severed at the ankles, one of his shoulders was broken, and he sustained numerous minor injuries. Up to a late hour last night he was lying in a conscious, but serious condition, at St. Luke's hospital, Utica, although the physicians had hopes of his recovery.

The passenger train came to a sudden stop when the accident was noticed, the wheels of one truck resting upon the brakeman's legs. The young man, who is about 22 years of age, married, and the father of a year-old child, never lost consciousness. Realizing his serious condition, he ripped open the front of his shirt, carefully took a rosary from around his neck, and silently counted off his prayers to the amazement of those around him. He continued this religious act even while rescuers were endeavoring to extricate his body from beneath the heavy coach.

As soon as word was received by the young man's parents, who live at 39 Fairview street, the father hastened to get to the bedside of his boy. The first details of the accident were carried to the mother by a Star reporter, who later was able to comfort her with the news that the physicians were hopeful of the outcome.

Mr. Corr is well known in this city. He lived here until a year or so ago, when he went to work in Binghamton. From there he secured a position at Ilion. He married a student of the Normal school about two years ago.

ONEONTA FIREMEN TO RESCUE

Their Work at Sidney Praised By President Pudney and Others.

About 6 o'clock Saturday evening the call from Sidney for the assistance of our firemen was received and at 6:10 Chief Choate and a dozen men left with the motor truck with Mike Stapleton at the wheel. The run was made in 45 minutes with a four minute delay at Crandall's crossing—as fast as it could be with safety.

Arriving there the firemen as once coupled to the hydrant at the corner of Clinton and River streets and were assigned to the hot corner near the coal and feed building where it was felt the fire could be kept to a single residence adjacent to it the rest of the street and in fact the business section could be saved. Owing to the number of streams then at work the pressure was not strong and the pump was used, giving a strong stream at the end of 550 feet of hose. The fire was at that point confined to the single house named.

"Your firemen saved us," declared B. E. Pudney, president of the village, in conversation with a Star representative at the scene after the fire was under control. "We were at the end of our hose and of our fire fighting power when your men arrived. They took hold and did just what was asked of them like the faithful firemen they are. They kept the fire confined at that point to the one house by effective work. Had the fire gone further it would have doubtless swept all the residences in that section which are close together, and would in all probability have reached the business section." The fire chief and other citizens spoke in like vein and evidently the assistance rendered was not only valuable but was greatly appreciated by all.

Returning, the Oneonta firemen made no effort for a fast run, arriving here about 11:40 p. m., tired but satisfied they had helped our neighbors. Chairman Baird of the fire commission drove down along with the firemen, giving what assistance he could. There were numerous other cars making the trip to witness the fire and perhaps even more yesterday to see the ruins.

CLEOPATRA TODAY

Theda Bara in Her Supreme Characterization at Theatre Oneonta.

The production opens when Cleopatra has been expelled from Egypt and with her followers is encamped on the desert. Then come those scenes of history where she goes to meet Caesar, conquering him by her beauty and by her inspiration he returns to Rome to demand of the senate that he be proclaimed emperor, but meeting his death at the hands of Brutus. Marc Antony's oration over his body before the populace is a dramatic picture of great intensity. How she contrives to lure Antony, by her stentorian spell, to forsake his duties and accompany her to Alexandria, at least and love, is like the dream of a romance.

Descriptive music, played by an orchestra, will follow the presentation of the play. Matinee at 2:30 p. m. Evening at 8:15. Prices in advertisement on page 2.

MARRIAGES

Walther-Velle.

Andrew Otto Walther and Miss Hilda Louella Velle, both of this city, were married at 3:30 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage on Chestnut street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Johns and bride and groom were attended by Clarence Graham and Miss Mildred Velle, the latter a sister of the bride.

The bride has for some time been a student of the Oneonta High school. She is a daughter of M. H. Velle of 26 Cherry street, and is a most charming young lady. The groom, who is a son of Otto Walther, superintendent of the Quality Silk mill in this city, has been to this time manager of the East street branch of the business. He leaves tomorrow for New York, where he departs for camp on Wednesday morning. Both have many friends who extend hearty congratulations.

Nichols-Finch.

Millford Center, May 25.—A very quiet wedding occurred at 8 p. m., on Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ferguson, when Miss Carrie Finch became the bride of Ward Nichols of Millford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. J. Silcox, pastor of the Millford Center Baptist church, and the bridal couple was attended by Miss Dora Ferguson and Howard Nichols. The happy couple departed by auto for a short wedding tour, and on Tuesday Mr. Nichols leaves with the Oneonta contingent for Camp Wadsworth at Spartanburg, S. C.

Addresses Men's Club.

Secretary Charles E. Westervelt of the Chamber of Commerce was in Gilbertsville yesterday, where following the union memorial services held in the Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock, he gave a patriotic address touching upon the duties we owe the nation, state and home town before the Men's club of that village. Mrs. Westervelt accompanied him.

It Should Be Considered a Great Privilege

By everyone in Oneonta to give to the WAR CHEST. Anyone who is not willing to give some of their money and some of their time to help WIN THIS WAR is going to spend a lot of time after the war explaining to their friends and neighbors why they didn't. So take advantage of this opportunity to show your colors—and give all you can to the WAR CHEST.

Think it over and your conscience, your pride or your patriotism will not let you refuse to give.

DEATHS.

William Gibbs Rogers.

East Meredith, May 26.—William Gibbs Rogers, a native of New Haven, Vermont, but for the past two years a respected resident of this village, died of heart failure on Saturday last. He had been a sufferer from asthma for a number of years, but had made a brave struggle for life, and all that loving hearts and willing hands could do was done for him. The funeral will be held Monday at 2 p. m., at the church, Rev. Henry Hacsman officiating.

Mr. Rogers was born July 6, 1872, and when a boy learned the plumbers trade and with his father conducted a hardware and plumbing business at Middle Granville, this state. Two years ago he came to East Meredith and had since been a valued employee in the W. D. Beardsley hardware store.

The deceased is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Lottie Fogg of Granville, and by six children—Louella of Granville, and Emerson, A. N., Frank, Harold and Hazel, who reside at home. He has many friends here who will extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Deloss Platt.

Laurens, May 26.—Deloss Platt died Saturday, May 25, at his home in this village, aged 83 years. He was born June 12, 1835, in the town of Milford, and was married in August, 1856, to Miss Diantha Rowland of that township. To them were born five children, all of whom are living: Mrs. Sarah Hotelling, who resided with him and cared for him during his illness; Eli Platt of Laurens, Ira Platt of Edmeston, Mrs. William Wells of Mt. Vision, and William Platt of Oneonta. The funeral will be held from the house Tuesday at 1 p. m. Rev. R. E. Austin of Edmeston officiating. Burial will be at Oneonta Plains. He was a retired farmer and a much respected man. He had lived in this village for the past five years. His last illness was of about two months' duration.

Morris Butts.

Morris Butts, a venerable resident of the town of Laurens, died Sunday at the home of his son-in-law, Henry Marlette of Mt. Vision. Mr. Butts was 87 years of age. Further particulars with date of funeral will appear in The Star tomorrow.

Quality and Cost

Good clothes are made from expensive weathers by skilled workmanship. These are the things you pay for. When the clothes are made of cheap material by slipshod workers, it does not cost so much—naturally. When clothing men speak of low prices, remember they get as much as they can. Quality is worth paying for.

FIVE LIVES IN DANGER

WHEN CAR OF MELVIN C. MOON CRASHES INTO GUARD FENCE.

Frank Bowen, badly cut about face and neck by barbed wire, and Mr. Moon bruised and shaken up—Three Others Escape with Slight Injuries—Car Crashed Off Road by Another Car Passing It.

Two persons, Melvin Moon, foreman at Morris Bros. elevator and residing at 17 South Fifth street, and Frank Bowen, traveling timekeeper in the maintenance of way department of the D. & H., boarding with Mrs. Moon at 20 Draper street, were painfully but it is believed not critically injured and three other occupants of the Moon automobile, Clifford Losee, Frank L. Hughson and Harry Peet, all residents of this city, were more or less bruised and shook up Sunday afternoon while riding to Sidney to view the ruins of the Saturday evening fire, when the car came in contact with the end of the guard fence on the westerly side of the north approach to the Cone crossing of the D. & H. tracks, midway between Wells Bridge and Unadilla. That they escaped with their lives is remarkable, and they all may well consider themselves fortunate indeed.

While early reports of the accident were like the rumors of the death of a famous humorist, "greatly exaggerated," the true story of the accident has been difficult to ascertain, due to it being believed to an effort on the part of Mr. Moon to conceal it—an unfortunate move which, doubtless, caused in large part the rumors of three persons killed and various other false reports concerning it.

Nothing could be learned from Mr. Moon, but according to others, he passed a short distance this side of the scene of the accident another Ford car, the driver of which seemed to take offense thereat, although no jeering or reason for resentment was given. As Mr. Moon and party were approaching the crossing, the enraged driver shot around them while they were driving at a good speed and crowded them off the macadam. The outside wheels of the Moon car evidently got into soft dirt, and whether he lost control of the car or there was not sufficient room left in which to clear the guard fence none seem to know, as it all occurred so quickly. In any event the Moon car hit the end of the guard fence in some way which, while not breaking down the post, raised the top rail. The car turned completely about and landed at the right of the highway bottomside up.

Hughson, Losee and Peet were evidently thrown clear of the car, the former striking some 50 feet away. Mr. Moon was close by the first post in a sitting posture with his outstretched legs under the overturned car, but not pinned by it. Mr. Bowen, who was the more seriously injured, was hopelessly interwoven with the barbed wire which formed the fence at the side and was broken from its fastenings to the guard fence.

Wilbur Potter, well known in this city, resides near the scene and he and several callers at his home were soon on the spot, as were several motoring parties. All save Mr. Bowen were, after a brief period, recovered from the stunning effect and able to walk to the Potter house, while Mr. Bowen was carried. Later the others came to the city with Oneonta motorists, who came along, while the Allied Trades ambulance went and brought Mr. Bowen to his boarding house, where Dr. Lang attended him. The injured man was badly lacerated about the face and neck, some 50 stitches being required to close the wounds, which were quite deep but not sufficient to reach any important vein or artery. His injuries are painful, but are not considered critical, there being no evidence of fractured bones or internal harm. Mr. Moon went to his home, where Dr. Brinkman attended him. One leg is badly bruised and cut and he was otherwise bruised. The car was badly damaged.

GIVEN HUNDRED DAYS.

Men in Draft Not Immune From Prosecution for Offenses.

There seems to have been in the mind of some a belief that men who are in class 1 and subject to immediate call for the service or who may have been called are immune from prosecution for offenses against the law and some have apparently abandoned themselves, thinking that no punishment would be meted out. A case in point is that of Harry Fitzgerald, whom the D. & H. officers took into custody for stealing a sack of flour from a crippled car in the yards here. The company is frequently called upon to pay for merchandise that is lost in transit, a larger part of which no doubt finds its way to the possession of dishonest employees.

Fitzgerald was convicted about two years ago of petit larceny in connection with the stealing of soap from a car in transit and he rewards the clemency then shown by committing this offense. Judge Shove satisfied that the federal authorities would have no leniency shown to this class of offenders, sentenced Fitzgerald to 100 days in the county jail, where he is now serving his time. He will not be at liberty to answer to the call issued for June 1, but the authorities will know where to find him when the sentence has expired.

Raymond Keator, who committed the same offense, but whose previous record is good and who appeared to regret his misdeed and to have a desire to keep out of the criminal class, was released upon the payment of a $25 fine.

DECORATION DAY PROGRAM

All Arrangements Completed for Annual Observance of Day of Memory.

Arrangements for the formal and appropriate observance of Decoration day in Oneonta has been completed and it is believed that the exercises will be among the most impressive and interesting ever held in this city. In the morning there will be no formal observance, but there will be the private and informal decoration of many graves by friends, relatives and members of the various organizations. At 12 noon, continuing to 12:45, the church bells of the city will toll, during which time all the citizens are requested to stand with uncovered heads. The parade will form at 1:20 o'clock, on Main street, right resting on Chestnut, and will move in the following order:

Capt. U. A. Ferguson, Marshal

Chief of Police T. W. Bizzard and Squad

Mayor A. E. Cicerly and Common Council

An Optimist.

When the stock market was in the midst of a bad break which proved ruinous to many, two brokers who were caught in the pinch met and compared notes, relates the Cleveland Leader. As they talked a big, happy looking man passed, calling out cheerily to some friends. "Who is he?" asked the first broker. The other took a good look at the big fellow, whom he recognized as a plunger who had made a fortune, within a few days. "Huh," he said, "he's an optimist." "Who is an optimist these days?" gloomily asked the other. Said the second broker: "The kind of a man, son, who when things are coming his way tells other people not to worry."

Eucalyptus Valuable Tree.

Eucalyptus will grow under many adverse conditions, so long as they are protected from frost. The young tree cannot stand frost, and this fact has restricted the growth of the species to certain favorable sections of California and the Southwest. On the other hand, the trees will thrive or very poor soil and they do not require very much attention. Some of the largest commercial plantations, maintained by railroad companies for tie making purposes, are located along the shores of the Pacific ocean near San Diego, where their principal moisture comes from the heavy fogs that roll in from the sea, and which are absorbed by the leaves.

Decoration Day at Laurens.

Laurens, May 26.—Memorial Day will be being observed as usual at Laurens. The Laurens band will furnish music and the pupils of the public schools will visit at the school house at 1:30 o'clock, form line and march to corner of Main and Brock streets where they will be met by the band and go to cemetery, where there will be speaking and decoration of soldiers' graves.

DELAWARE COUNTY NEWS

DELHI FROM DAY TO DAY.

Arthur F. Curtis, New Member of Local Exemption Board.

Delhi, May 25.—Walter L. Jackson, who resigned some time ago as a member of the board on account of his desire to go west, received notice yesterday that his resignation had been accepted and that Arthur F. Curtis had been appointed to fill the vacancy.

The board received a further call for four more men to leave with the 49 called for May 25, making the number 53. The following additional were called to appear at that time, from which the four will be procured: Harry Birdsall, Patridge, Grand Gorge; Patsy Urgenta, present address Oneonta; Sherman Stewart Shields, East Branch; George H. Mandesley, Hancock; James Leroy Crossman, Delhi.

Annex Disposed Of.

The opera house annex, constructed to accommodate the War show has been dismantled and the lumber sold to Edgar Truscott, who is building a new house in the town of Meredith.

THROUGH STORM WITH BABY

Aged Pennsylvania Woman Walks 12 Miles to Get Relief for Family.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.—Mrs. Margaret Kemp, a widow of fifty-two years and the mother of six children, walked 12 miles over the snow-crusted mountain roads with her youngest child in her arms just to get warm.

When she got here she pleaded for some means of getting warmth for the rest of her family, which she said was freezing in the shack called "home" on Bald mountain.

The mother and her baby were sent to the United Charities and relief was dispatched to the children. They had neither shoes nor stockings, little underwear and ragged outer garments, and were huddled under a few old horse blankets and quilts. All were brought here.
